

The Millennial Mobile Worker

Enterprise will be required to adjust operations in order to account for growing use and demand by an increasingly mobile workforce.

72%

of small businesses use mobile apps in their operations.

70%

of millennials will be in every workforce by 2025.

81%

of CEO's see mobile technologies as being strategically important for their enterprises.

3 in 5

people say they don't need to be in the office to be productive.

78%

of smart phone users access emails on their devices.

42%

of people increased their productivity working mobile.

“ Mobile use is growing faster than all of Google's internal predictions. ”

chess 