

1. Policy Summary

1.1. The Senior Management Team within Chess ICT Limited, are [within the context of its Information Security Policy) committed to comply with all relevant UK and EU laws in respect to data privacy, and towards the protection of the “rights and freedoms” of individuals whose information Chess ICT, as data controller collect. Most notably In accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), which comes into force from May 2018. To that end, the Senior Management Team have developed, implemented, maintain and continuously improve a documented Personal Information Management System (‘PIMS’) across all [its] locations.

2. Scope

2.1. This policy aims to meet the requirements of the (GDPR) across all [its] locations, employees, partners and affiliates of Chess ICT Limited whom act as processor on behalf of [our] data subjects. Significant changes to data privacy laws in the EU/UK have led to Chess ICT Limited reviewing its existing policies and procedures to ensure it meets the new criteria and to safeguard our business and its customers from the latest threats towards the overall rights and freedoms of individuals.

2.2. The General Data Protection Regulation replaces the EU Data Protection Directive of 1995 and supersedes the laws of individual Member States that were developed in compliance with the Data Protection Directive 95/46/EC. Its purpose is to protect the “rights and freedoms” of living individuals, and to ensure that personal data is not processed without their knowledge, and, wherever possible, that it is processed with their consent.

2.3. The Head of Quality & Compliance, for Chess ICT is responsible for the on-going maintenance, effectiveness and ultimate alignment of this policy to fulfill our legal/regulatory requirements; and remains accountable to the board of directors on its overall performance.

3. Objectives of the PIMS

3.1. The objectives for the PIMS will enable Chess ICT to; (a) meet its own privacy requirements as a data controller; (b) to meet all necessary compliance obligations as per the GDPR; (c) impose controls in line with Chess ICT’s Risk Management strategy; (d) ensure Chess ICT meet(s) all applicable statutory, regulatory, contractual and professional duties and; (e) that it protects the interests of data subjects, third parties, affiliated data processors and other interested parties.

3.2. Chess ICT is committed towards the fulfilment of all its compliance requirements relating to Data Privacy and its subsequent practices including, but not limited to;

3.2.1. Processing personal information only where this is strictly necessary for legitimate business purposes;

3.2.2. Collecting only minimum personal information required for these purposes and not processing excessive personal information;

3.2.3. Providing clear information to individuals about how their personal information will be used and by whom;

3.2.4. Only processing relevant and adequate personal information;

3.2.5. Processing personal information fairly and lawfully;

3.2.10. Maintaining its security and accessibility;

3.2.11. Only transferring personal information outside the EU in circumstances where it can be adequately protected and is necessary.

3.2.12. The application of the various exemptions allowable by the current data protection legislation;

3.2.13. Developing and implementing a PIMS to enable the policy to be implemented effectively;

3.2.14. Where appropriate, identifying both internal and external stakeholders and the degree to which these stakeholders are involved in the governance of Chess ICT Limited’s PIMS; and

3.2.15. The identification of stakeholders with specific responsibility and accountability for the PIMS.

4. Notification

4.1. Chess ICT has notified the Information Commissioner that it is a data controller and that it processes certain information about data subjects. Chess ICT have identified all personal data assets that it processes and is contained within the Data Inventory Register (Ref: REDACTED).

4.2. A copy of the ICO notification details are retained by the Head of Quality & Compliance [Appointed Data Protection Officer] and the ICO Notification Handbook is used as the authoritative guidance for notification.

4.3. The ICO notification is renewed annually each January.

4.4. The Head of Quality & Compliance [Appointed Data Protection Officer] is responsible, each year, for reviewing the details of notification, in the light of any changes to Chess ICT Limited’s activities (as determined by changes to the Data Inventory Register and the management review) and to any additional requirements identified by means of data protection impact assessments.

4.5. The policy applies to all Employees/Staff [and its interested parties] of Chess ICT Limited such as outsourced suppliers. Any breach towards the GDPR or this PIMS will be dealt with under Chess ICT Limited’s disciplinary policy and may also be a criminal offence, in which case the matter will be reported as soon as possible to the appropriate authorities.

4.6. Partners and any third parties working with or for Chess ICT Limited, and who have or may have access to personal information, will be expected to have read, understood and to comply with this policy. No third party may access personal data held by Chess ICT Limited without having first entered into a data confidentiality agreement (Ref: REDACTED), which imposes on the third-party obligations no less onerous than those to which Chess ICT Limited is committed, and which gives Chess ICT Limited the right to audit compliance with the agreement.

5. Definitions

5.1. Territorial scope – the GDPR will apply to all controllers that are established in the EU (European Union) who process the personal data of data subjects, in the context of that establishment. It will also apply to controllers outside of the EU that process personal data to offer goods and services, or monitor the behavior to data subjects who are resident in the EU.

5.2. Establishment – the main establishment of the controller in the EU will be the place in which the controller makes the main decisions as to the purpose of its data processing activities. The main establishment of a processor in the EU will be its administrative center. If a controller is based outside the EU, it will have to appoint a representative in the jurisdiction in which the controller operates, to act on behalf of the controller and deal with supervisory authorities.

- 5.3. Personal data – any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ('data subject'); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person.
- 5.4. Special categories of personal data – personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade-union membership, and the processing of genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation.
- 5.5. Data controller – the natural or legal person, public authority, agency or other body which, alone or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of the processing of personal data; where the purposes and means of such processing are determined by Union or Member State law, the controller or the specific criteria for its nomination may be provided for by Union or Member State law.
- 5.6. Data subject – any living individual who is the subject of personal data held by Chess ICT Limited.
- 5.7. Processing – any operation or set of operations which is performed on personal data or on sets of personal data, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction.
- 5.8. Profiling – is any form of automated processing of personal data intended to evaluate certain personal aspects relating to a natural person, or to analyse, or predict that person's performance at work, economic situation, location, health, personal preferences, reliability, or behavior. This definition is linked to the right of the data subject to object to profiling and a right to be informed about the existence of profiling, of measures based on profiling and the envisaged effects of profiling on the individual.
- 5.9. Personal data breach – a breach of security leading to the accidental, or unlawful, destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, personal data transmitted, stored or otherwise processed. There is an obligation on the controller to report personal data breaches to the supervisory authority and where the breach is likely to adversely affect the personal data or privacy of the data subject.
- 5.10. Data subject consent - means any freely given, specific, informed and unambiguous indication of the data subject's wishes by which he or she, by a statement or by a clear affirmative action, signifies agreement to the processing of personal data.
- 5.11. Child – the GDPR defines a child as anyone under the age of 16 years old. The processing of personal data of a child under 13 years of age is only lawful if parental or custodian consent has been obtained.
- 5.12. Third party – a natural or legal person, public authority, agency or body other than the data subject, controller, processor and persons who, under the direct authority of the controller or processor, are authorised to process personal data.
- 5.13. Filing system – any structured set of personal data which are accessible according to specific criteria, whether centralised, decentralised or dispersed on a functional or geographical basis.

    - 15.1.3. To prevent processing for purposes of direct marketing.
    - 15.1.4. To be informed about the mechanics of automated decision-taking process that will significantly affect them.
    - 15.1.5. Not to have significant decisions that will affect them taken solely by automated process.
    - 15.1.6. To sue for compensation if they suffer damage by any contravention of the GDPR.
    - 15.1.7. To take action to rectify, block, erased, including the right to be forgotten, or destroy inaccurate data.
    - 15.1.8. To request the ICO to assess whether any provision of the GDPR has been contravened.
    - 15.1.9. The right for personal data to be provided to them in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format, and the right to have that data transmitted to another controller.
    - 15.1.10. The right to object to any automated profiling without consent.
  - 15.2. Data subjects may make data access requests as described in (Ref: REDACTED); this procedure also describes how Chess ICT Limited will ensure that its response to the data access request complies with the requirements of the Regulation.
16. Complaints
  - 16.1. Data Subjects whom wish to complain to Chess ICT Limited about how their personal information has been processed may lodge their complaint directly with the Complaints division at Chess ICT. All complaints must be done in writing.
  - 16.2. Data subjects may also complain directly to the Information Commissioners Office.
  - 16.3. Where data subjects wish to complain about how their complaint has been handled, or appeal against any decision made following a complaint, they may lodge a further complaint to the Head of Quality & Compliance [Appointed Data Protection Officer].
17. Consent
  - 17.1. Chess ICT Limited understands 'consent' to mean that it has been explicitly and freely given, specific, informed and unambiguous indication of the data subject's wishes by which he or she by statement, or by a clear affirmative action, signifies agreement to the processing of personal data relating to him or her. The consent of the data subject can be withdrawn at any time.
  - 17.2. Chess ICT Limited understands 'consent' to mean that the data subject has been fully informed of the intended processing and has signified their agreement, while in a fit state of mind to do so and without pressure being exerted upon them. Consent obtained under duress or on the basis of misleading information will not be a valid basis for processing.
  - 17.3. In most instances consent to process personal and sensitive data is obtained routinely by Chess ICT Limited using standard consent documents [reference] e.g. when a new member of staff signs a contract of employment, or during induction for participants on programmes.
  - 17.4. Where Chess ICT Limited provides online services to children, parental, or custodial authorisation must be obtained. This requirement applies to children under the age of 16.
18. Security of data
  - 18.1. All Employees/Staff are responsible for ensuring that any personal data which Chess ICT Limited holds and for which they are responsible, is kept securely and is not under any conditions disclosed to any third party unless that third party has been specifically authorised by Chess ICT Limited to receive that information and has entered into a confidentiality agreement (Ref: REDACTED).
  - 18.2. All personal data should be accessible only to those who need to use it, and access may only be granted in line with the Access Control Policy (Ref: REDACTED). You should form a judgment based upon the sensitivity and value of the information in question, but personal data must be kept:
    - 18.2.1. in a lockable room with controlled access; and/or
    - 18.2.2. in a locked drawer or filing cabinet; and/or
    - 18.2.3. if computerised, password protected in line with corporate requirements in the Access Control Policy (Ref: REDACTED), and/or
    - 18.2.4. stored on (removable) computer media which are encrypted in line with (Ref: REDACTED).
  - 18.3. Care must be taken to ensure that PC screens and terminals are not visible except to authorised Employees of Chess ICT Limited. All Employees are required to enter into an Acceptable Use Agreement (Ref: REDACTED) before they are given access to Chess's information of any sort.

- 18.4. Manual records may not be left where they can be accessed by unauthorised personnel and may not be removed from business premises without explicit [written] authorisation. As soon as manual records are no longer required for day-to-day client support, they must be removed from secure archiving in line with [Ref: REDACTED].
- 18.5. Personal data may only be deleted or disposed of in line with the Data Retention Procedure (Ref: REDACTED). Manual records that have reached their retention date are to be shredded and disposed of as 'confidential waste'. Hard drives of redundant PCs are to be removed and immediately destroyed as required by (Ref: REDACTED) before disposal.
- 18.6. Processing of personal data 'off-site' presents a potentially greater risk of loss, theft or damage to personal data. Employees must be specifically authorised to process data off-site by the Head of Infrastructure.
19. Rights of access to data
  - 19.1. Data subjects have the right to access any personal data (i.e. data about them) which is held Chess ICT Limited in electronic format and manual records which form part of a relevant filing system. This includes the right to inspect confidential personal references received by Chess ICT Limited, and information obtained from third-party organisations about that person.
  - 19.2. Subject Access Requests are dealt with as per the published Subject Access Request Policy, available through our Website, or upon request.
20. Disclosure of data
  - 20.1. Chess ICT Limited must ensure that personal data is not disclosed to unauthorised third parties which includes family members, friends, government bodies, and in certain circumstances, the Police. All Employees should exercise caution when asked to disclose personal data held on another individual to a third party [and will be required to attend specific training that enables them to deal effectively with any such risk]. It is important to bear in mind whether disclosure of the information is relevant to, and necessary for, the conduct of Chess ICT Limited's business.
  - 20.2. The GDPR permits certain disclosures without consent so long as the information is requested for one or more of the following purposes;
    - 20.2.1. to safeguard national security;
    - 20.2.2. prevention or detection of crime including the apprehension or prosecution of offenders;
    - 20.2.3. assessment or collection of tax duty;
    - 20.2.4. discharge of regulatory functions (includes health, safety and welfare of persons at work);
    - 20.2.5. to prevent serious harm to a third party;
    - 20.2.6. to protect the vital interests of the individual, this refers to life and death situations.
  - 20.3. All requests to provide data for one of these reasons must be supported by appropriate paperwork and all such disclosures must be specifically authorised by the Head of Quality & Compliance [Appointed Data Protection Officer].
21. Disposal of records
  - 21.1. Personal data must be disposed of in a way that protects the "rights and freedoms" of data subjects (e.g. shredding, disposal as confidential waste, secure electronic deletion) and in line with the secure disposal procedure (Ref: REDACTED).
22. Data Protection Officer
  - 22.1. For any/all enquiries relating to this policy or any data privacy practices carried out by Chess ICT, please contact the appointed Data Protection Officer. All communications are to be made in writing and addressed directly to the appointed Data Protection Officer.
  - 22.2. The Data protection officer is: Nick Capper [Head of Quality & Compliance] and can be contacted in writing by: compliance@chessict.co.uk or Chess ICT, Bridgford House, Heyes Lane, Alderley Edge. SK9 7JP.
